English training for international teams

Many international tech companies work with distributed teams and global partners. However employees often face challenges when communicating in English during meetings, product discussions and negotiations.

Why choose us?

Our program focuses on practical workplace communication. Participants improve English for real situations:

- meetings and team discussions
- product presentations
- partner communication
- negotiations

Lessons are based on real scenarios from your sphere.

Teams we teach:

Software developers / product managers / project managers / data analysts / marketing & affiliate managers / sales & business development / customer success teams / HR teams and others

Among our major clients: OpenWay Group

Examples of our lessons:

The screenshot displays a lesson interface with three main components:

- 1.1 Check out this youtube video on whether or not you should open source your startup: A video player showing a man speaking, with a red play button overlay.
- 1.2 Fun stuff: A text-based activity asking, "What do you do when you're having problems with your favorite server? This website gives you up-to-date analytics regarding outages." with a button "Перейти по ссылке".
- Dialogue 3: Handling negotiations: A text-based dialogue with a sidebar menu on the right. The sidebar menu includes: WARM-UP, READING, GRAMMAR, PRONUNCIATION, SPEAKING & SOFT SKILLS, WRITING & SOFT SKILLS, GLOSSARY OF TECHNICAL TERMS, and QUIZ. The dialogue text includes: "I'd like to implement another weekly meeting on Wednesday. What are your thoughts?", "I don't see the relevance of that to be honest. I know that check-ins are important but I'd like to point out that they don't have to be done in-person. They could just be sent via email. Plus, we also need to take into account the fact that most of us are located in different time zones so it's going to be hard to find a time that would work for everyone.", "Thanks for the feedback, I appreciate it. Can we circle back to this topic at our next team meeting? Would you be ok with sharing your thoughts there?", "I would, absolutely."

We offer a free consultation to discuss your team's needs.
